Hey Guys,

The list with at least several of us is not correct.

Although we'd love to play back east, we only signed up for West Coast.

I emailed Ryan and hopefully they will get you updated soon.

Hopefully I can watch you guys battle on webcast live!

Regards,

Jim

I noticed last night that the list got smaller. I coulda swore I counted 22 last time but I guess there was an error with the way registration happened once the West Coast registration opened.

List is down to 16 now. Plus 5 more from Mid-South and Dearstyne hopefully. That's why we need should put together a spare car in the Southeast for people to run if needed.

Parking plan is out. There's a free side and pay side. I'd like to see a 944 Spec area where ever that might be and am willing to pay to see that we get the space we need. Any thoughts on how much space we would need?

Would love to see us all together. There are either 5 or 7 of us coming down from the Midwest/Great Lakes who need to paddock together (share crew, tools, spares, nitrogen tank, etc.). We probably need 2 of the 20' x 130' spaces.

Anyone else planning to paddock as a group? If so, we could

Anyone coming from afar and pretty much solo? If so, we're happy to adopt you in our space and/or order an additional space if required. Please just chime in !
